1. BACKGROUND & CONTEXT

Catholic Professional Standards Ltd (CPSL) is committed to fostering a culture of safety and care for children and vulnerable adults who come into contact with the Catholic Church and its works in Australia.

Catholic Professional Standards Ltd unequivocally commits to promoting the dignity and integrity of every person. To meet this commitment, this Code of Conduct has been developed in consultation with relevant parties. The provision of a safe and supportive environment is essential to ensure employees and those with whom they work are affirmed in their dignity and worth as people.

2. PURPOSE & SCOPE

This Code of Conduct applies to all personnel engaged by Catholic Professional Standards Ltd including paid employees, agency workers, volunteers, Directors, committee members and contractors. The safety of children and vulnerable adults is core to the organisation's mission and is reflected in this Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct has been developed to complement the Policy Manual and should be read in conjunction with relevant legislation, policies and procedures.

3. WHEN DOES THE CODE APPLY?

The Code of Conduct applies to all employees:

- a) in the performance of their duties
- b) during Catholic Professional Standards Ltd activities and at Catholic Professional Standards Ltd -related events (whether convened by Catholic Professional Standards Ltd or not, and whether convened during usual working hours or not)
- c) when their association with Catholic Professional Standards Ltd is identifiable (eg: while using Facebook from a personal computer in personal time if Catholic Professional Standards Ltd is listed on Facebook as the employer)

4. DEFINITIONS

Child – 'Child' and 'children' refers to children and young people under 18 years of age.

Conduct – The personal behaviour of an individual.

Conflict of Interest – A situation in which an individual has competing professional or personal interests making it difficult for an individual to fulfil their duties impartially. Such competing interests could potentially influence judgements made during the course of professional duty.

Contractors – Contractors are those employed with a specific skill set and invoice CPSL for their work. They are not employees of CPSL.

Directors – An appointed member of the Board of Directors of CPSL who carries out duties as per the Constitution of CPSL.

Discrimination – To treat an individual less favourably because of a protected attribute, or to impose unreasonable terms or conditions for which individuals with a particular attribute are unable to comply.

Disciplinary Action – Measures taken by CPSL in relation to unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or serious misconduct in relation to the performance of their duties.

Employees – All permanent, fixed term staff and casual personnel covered by common law employment contract with CPSL.

Ethics – The guiding values, principles and standards that enable people to determine how things should be done and how they should act.

Fair – Behaving justly and working within commonly accepted rules.

Harassment – Any form of behaviour that is unwelcome, unsolicited and unreciprocated. The behaviour is often likely to offend, humiliate or intimidate other people and may be a single incident or reoccurring.

Misconduct – The dereliction of duty or behaviour likely to bring the reputation of the organisation into disrepute

Personnel – Collective term for all employees, Directors, volunteers, agency/temporary staff and contractors.

Serious Misconduct – Misconduct of such a nature that it would be unreasonable to require the organisation to continue the employment of the employee.

Supervisor – A staff member who has designated responsibility for managing and/or overseeing the performance and workplace behaviour of other personnel.

Temporary Staff – Casual employees engaged through a Recruitment Agency where the Recruitment Agency ensures that satisfactory pre-employment checks are in place.

Volunteers – Volunteers include individuals or entities who donate employee time, willing given for the common good and without financial gain.

Vulnerable Adult – A person who because of age, personality, condition or personal circumstance finds it difficult to protect themselves from abuse or exploitation.

Work Resources – Includes physical, financial, technological and intellectual property.

5. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

In performing their duties, it is expected that all personnel will support the core values of Catholic Professional Standards Ltd.

Employees have a responsibility to meet the high standards of professional and ethical behaviour required by employer when interacting with colleagues, service users, contractors, and the Catholic and wider community.

Employees undertake their responsibilities within the framework of the law and lawful and reasonable instructions from their employer. Employees must comply with legislative and industrial requirements, with this Code and any policies and procedures that are implemented by Catholic Professional Standards Ltd.
